What people are saying

"My debut short, "DOGMA", screened at #AniFab24 in San Antonio. I am always proud to show off the film I worked so hard on at any venue, but my experience at AniFab24 was like no other. What sets AniFab apart is that every attendee that has trekked from the far reaches of the world has done so in order to come together to celebrate their love of animals. However, the difference isn't just that AniFab is a festival about animals, but a festival about love and connection in general."

Dave Rosas, Director of DOGMA

"We really enjoyed meeting the festival team and other filmmakers. We had a great time and were thrilled to have a packed house of animal lovers for our screening!."

Robin Rene Conly, #AniFab24
Director, Dolphin Summer

"Participating in #AniFab21, the Animalis Fabula Film Festival was like spending time with good friends. From the month's lead-up, to the three day event itself, festival director Tom McPhee's infectious enthusiasm in seeking to unite such a large and diverse group of film professionals together as a community was truly inspiring."
